Trustees Sought

The Daubeny Almshouse* Trustees are looking for new Trustees to join them over the next year.

No previous experience is required but the duties include:

- Attending regular meetings of the Trustees (usually 3-4 a year)
- Engaging in decision-making on the management of the Almshouse trust
- Ensuring that the finances are properly handled
- Interviewing and appointing residents

If you are interested please email the Clerk to the Trustees at : daubeny@mail.com for further information.

The Daubeny Almshouse is on Southwick Road, North Bradley. It consists of 6 self contained, one-bedroomed, flats. The Trust requires that the residents should be capable of living independently, have a connection with North Bradley or the surrounding areas, and be over 60 years of age.*